“On Your Mark, Get Set, READ!” Summer Library Club

Race your way to the Library for the 2016 Summer Library Club (SLC)!

Inspired by this summer’s theme— On Your Mark, Get Set, Read! — the Library will promote books, programs, and activities that highlight health, exercise, and general wellbeing.

As usual we will offer a variety of library programs throughout the 10-week program, and folks will be able to sign up, log hours, and participate in SLC online beginning May 23 by visiting <http://www.summerlibraryclub.org>, or in person at any Upper Arlington Public Library location.

Participants of all ages will earn their first prize (a bundle of coupons) after reading 10 hours and completing 10 activities, and a final prize (a book) after reading a total of 20 hours and completing a total of 20 activities.

Upon reaching the 20/20 mark, each participant will also be entered into a drawing for a grand prize within their age category. The grand prize drawing will take place and winners notified by phone on Monday, August 1. One lucky winner will be drawn from each age category.

A huge thank you to the Friends of the Upper Arlington Public Library, who sponsor our Summer Library Club each year. We wouldn’t be able to provide this wonderful event without their generous financial support.

Summer Library Club Grand Prizes

- Infants/Toddlers (ages 0-3)
Step 2 Wagon, variety of books, learning toys ($130 value)
- Preschoolers (ages 3-5)

UA Library Joins Nationwide Libraries Transform Campaign

This April during National Library Week, the Upper Arlington Public Library joined the American Library Association’s “Libraries Transform” campaign.

Rapid advances in technology are fueling a library renaissance. In addition to books, movies, music and periodicals, the UA Library offers an assortment of free digitally-based programs and services such as eBooks and one-on-one technology training.

Such tech-based resources are affecting lives through digital literacy and lifelong learning. The results are contributions to education, employment, entrepreneurship, engagement and empowerment.

By recognizing the importance of libraries through a series of “Because” statements, including on a series of banners hanging in our Main Library’s atrium, we hope to reveal their relevancy to those who may question why libraries are still needed today.

UA Library patron Elisha Koivisto uses the Library as a way to be active with her children. “The Library has helped me take care of my kids by providing storytime and crafts. It gets us out of the house and breaks up the day,” she says.

Have a story to share about how the library has affected you and your family? Fill out a paper form available at any UA Library or submit your story online at <http://goo.gl/forms/UXGNwv92C6>. You can also Tweet or post to Facebook by tagging us and using #LibrariesTransform.

Frank Lloyd Wright's Residential Designs

Friday, June 24 at 1 p.m. Adults
Friends Theater; 1 hr. No registration

We'll discuss the great American architect Frank Lloyd Wright and his designs for domestic spaces. We'll explore Wright's innovative, modern designs in his Prairie Style, Usonian, and concrete block homes, and analyze how he revolutionized domestic architecture in the United States. We'll also examine many of Wright's pieces for the interior of those homes, such as stained glass windows, lamps and furniture, and how he combined them to create such inspiring pieces of architecture. Presented by Columbus College of Art and Design instructor Ann Shifflet.

Preschool Beach Party

Saturday, June 25 at 10:30 a.m. PreK
Outdoors; 45 min. No registration

We don't have a pool, but we'll still have lots of fun at our preschool beach party! We'll have sand and water tables, stories, limbo, and a few other surprises. Weather permitting we'll be out in the sun. If it rains, we'll take the fun indoors.

Frank Lloyd Wright's Commercial Designs

Friday, July 15 at 1 p.m. Adults
Friends Theater; 1 hr. No registration

While he is sometimes thought of as a designer of homes, Frank Lloyd Wright's public and commercial commissions were numerous. In this program, we'll look at Wright's many non-domestic designs, including the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum in New York City, the Unity Temple in Chicago, Wisconsin's S.C. Johnson Wax building, the Imperial Hotel in Tokyo, and others. We'll explore how Wright managed to create innovative, modern designs in such large structures and how he integrated his ideas of "organic design" into those works. Presented by Columbus College of Art and Design instructor Ann Shifflet.

Keep Your Pets Healthy

Saturday, July 16 at 2 p.m.

Activity Room; 60 min.

Grades 4-12

Art History: The Architecture of H.H. Richardson

Friday, August 12 at 1 p.m.

Friends Theater; 1 hr.

Adults

No registration

H.H. Richardson was one of the most important early architects in America. Working in the 19th century, he created a style called "Richardsonian Romanesque" that combined Medieval influences, Arts and Crafts principles, and a wholly unique American vision.

We will look at Richardson's most important commissions including Trinity Church in Boston and the Marshall Field Wholesale Store in Chicago. We'll explore many other designs for libraries, churches, and homes throughout America. Presented by Columbus College of Art and Design instructor Ann Shifflet.

Tickets to Author Bill Clegg Talk On Sale July 1

The Upper Arlington Author Series is pleased to welcome Bill Clegg, author of Did You Ever Have a Family, to Upper Arlington High School on Sunday, October 2 at 2 p.m. Tickets to his talk will be available beginning July 1 via a link on our website at www.ualibrary.org. Ticket prices will be $35, $25, and $15. Student tickets are available for $10. Details on a reception following the talk will be available this summer.

Clegg's novel Did You Ever Have a Family was published in 2015. The opening of the book features a home gas explosion, which may feel familiar to Upper Arlington residents.

It received favorable reviews from The New York Times, the Financial Times, The Independent and others. Clare Clark of The Guardian called it "a quiet novel of devastating power."

The book was longlisted for both the National Book Award and the Man Booker Prize last year.

Bill Clegg is a literary agent in New York and is also the author of the memoirs Portrait of an Addict as a Young Man and Ninety Days. He has written for The New York Times, Esquire, The Guardian, New York Magazine and Harper's Bazaar.

Clegg is the latest prominent author to visit our community through the Upper Arlington Author Series. Since its debut in 2012, the Series has hosted Marc Brown, Alexander McCall Smith, Lynne Olson and Anthony Doerr.

The series has become a signature community event thanks to the sponsorship of the Ann Royce Moore Fund at the Upper Arlington Community Foundation, the Upper Arlington Public Library, and the Friends of the Upper Arlington Public Library.

Please note: Video and photos are occasionally taken of library activities for use in future online and print promotions. If you prefer that you or your child not be photographed, please notify the photographer.

30 min.

All ages
Registration opens July 25

Join us for a special storytime for 2016-2017 Barrington Elementary School kindergarten students. To help with the transition to kindergarten, we'll share stories and songs about starting school, and you'll get a chance to meet and get to know the Barrington school librarian before the first day of school.

Fun Day Carnival

Thursday, August 11 at 6:30 p.m.

60 min.

All ages
No registration

Join us for our annual free outdoor carnival! Play games and win prizes in a book walk, bean bag toss, face painting, parachute play and more. Don't miss out on this end-of-summer fun.

Storytimes by the Pool

Your favorite storytime staff from each UA Library will be visiting Upper Arlington pools on select Fridays this summer to provide mini-storytimes during pool break! See below for dates, times, and who will be providing the storytime.

Please note that there will not be a storytime at the pool in the case of predicted or imminent rain, severe wind, or other problematic weather conditions.
