Build a Better World with the Summer Library Club

Let's "Build a Better World" together! Our Summer Library Club runs from May 22-July 30 at all three Upper Arlington Libraries. These 10 weeks focus on reading and literacy activities, as well as experiential, entertaining, and educational programs.

All participants will receive a log to track completed hours and activities. As you fill your log, bring it to any UA Library to have it stamped. Hours and activities can also be logged online at <http://summerlibraryclub.org>.

You'll receive a coupon prize pack after completing 10 hours of reading and 10 activities. After completing 20 hours of reading and 20 activities, you'll receive a free book and automatically be entered into the grand prize drawing for your age group (infants/toddlers, preschoolers, elementary, teens, and adults). Grand prize winners will be chosen at random and notified on July 31.

Visit <http://summerlibraryclub.org>, or come in to any of our locations to sign up.

Thank you to our sponsors for donating prizes: The Friends of the Upper Arlington Library, the Ohio State Fair, Ohio State Parks, Chipotle, Ohio Renaissance Festival, Magic Mountain, Upper Arlington Parks and Recreation Department, the Ohio Machine, and Kings Island.

Art History: Japanese Art

Columbus College of Art and Design instructor Ann Shifflet presents a look at Japanese architecture and 19th century prints.

Katsushika Hokusai

Fri., June 9 at 1 p.m.

Friends Theater; 60 min.

No registration

Katsushika Hokusai was a 19th century printmaker who is most well-known for his series Thirty-Six Views of Mount Fuji and its most famous print, The Great Wave off Kanagawa. He expanded the subject matter of traditional Japanese prints, including scenes of landscapes and everyday life, and his works were influential to European artists after they were made available in the 19th century.

Utagawa Hiroshige

Fri., July 14 at 1 p.m.

Friends Theater; 60 min.

No registration

Like Hokusai, Utagawa Hiroshige is considered a master of ukiyo-e print-making in the 19th century, and had a lasting impact on European artists who saw his work.

We'll look at selections from Hiroshige's series One Hundred Views of Edo and The Fifty-three Stations of the Tokaido, and discuss how his work differed from Hokusai and inspired artists like Vincent van Gogh.

Japanese Architecture

Fri., August 11 at 1 p.m.

Friends Theater; 60 min.

No registration

Finally we'll explore the history of Japanese architecture. From some of the earliest examples to contemporary structures, Ann will examine many aspects of Japanese design, including materials, shape, and interiors. We will also discuss how Japanese architects like Kenzo Tange incorporated Modernist principles into Japanese architecture and how traditional Japanese architecture influenced Western architects like Frank Lloyd Wright.

OPERA ON FILM

No need to don a tux for these operas! Christopher Purdy, Classical 101 producer and host, presents four programs for opera newbies and experts.

Lucia di Lammermoor

Sun., June 11 at 1:30 p.m.

Friends Theater; 3 hrs.

No registration

Lucia di Lammermoor tells a tragic story of a young woman forced to marry to bring wealth to her family. Gaetano Donizetti loosely based this opera on Sir Walter Scott's historical novel The Bride of Lammermoor. We're showing the Metropolitan Opera's production starring Joan Sutherland.

H.M.S. Pinafore

Sun., June 25 at 1:30 p.m.

Friends Theater; 3 hrs.

No registration

Since its premiere in 1878, Gilbert and Sullivan's wildly popular operetta H.M.S. Pinafore has delighted audiences with a nautically-tinged story of star-crossed lovers. A humble sailor is smitten with the captain's daughter, a woman far above his social rank. When she declares her love, the couple decides to elope.

Manon

Sun., July 9 at 1:30 p.m.

Friends Theater; 3 hrs.

No registration

Manon is an opera in five acts by Jules Massenet to a French libretto by Henri Meilhac and Philippe Gille. It's based on a 1731 novel by the Abbé Prévost about a sheltered young woman who runs from her predetermined life as a nun.

Norma

Sun., July 23 at 1:30 p.m.

Friends Theater; 3 hrs.

No registration

Norma, composed by Vincenzo Bellini with a libretto by Felice Romani, has entranced audiences for more than 180 years. It's the story of Norma, the druid high-priestess, who has broken her vows by getting involved with the Roman Pollione. But Pollione has fallen out of love with Norma, and now loves another.

Author Visits Planned for Summer and Fall

Upper Arlington residents can look forward to visits by two authors later this year thanks to the Library's partnerships with local organizations.

Glenn Doyle Melton will speak at Upper Arlington High School on Sunday, August 20 at 2:30 p.m. Her visit is co-sponsored by the Upper Arlington Author Series and the Burkhart Center of First Community Church. Tickets will go on sale June 15 at www.ualibrary.org.

She wrote the New York Times bestseller and Oprah's Book Club Pick Love Warrior, as well as Carry On, Warrior.

Her media credits include the TODAY Show, The Talk, NPR, The New York Times, Glamour, Ladies Home Journal and others.

Jamie Ford will be the featured speaker in this year's Upper Arlington Author Series event on Sunday, October 1 at 2 p.m. at Upper Arlington High School. Tickets for his talk will go on sale August 1 at www.ualibrary.org.

Jamie is the bestselling author of Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet, a 2009 historical fiction novel which was recently optioned by Hollywood with Ford himself writing the screenplay.

He is also the author of 2014's Songs of Willow Frost and the upcoming Love and Other Consolation Prizes, which will be published in September.

The Upper Arlington Author Series has become a signature community event through the partnership of the Library and the UA Community Foundation. This is the sixth year of the series.
