Programs for Children, Teens & Adults at the Upper Arlington Public Library

Adventure awaits your stuffed friend at Miller Park's Cuddly Critter Camp-In.

NEWS FROM THE LIBRARY

Thank You, Upper Arlington!

The Library's Board of Trustees, administration, and staff extend appreciation and gratitude to the voters of Upper Arlington for approving our operating levy on May 3. Thanks to you, we can continue to offer materials, services, spaces and experts that enrich the lives of those in our community.

Margaret Atwood Visits June 15

Our long-awaited event with author Margaret Atwood will take place on Wednesday, June 15 at 7 p.m. at the Palace Theater in downtown Columbus. Ann Fisher from WOSU Public Media will conduct a conversation-style interview with the author. Gramercy Books will be onsite to sell Atwood's books. Tickets are on sale at www.ualibrary.org, and range from $25-$75 plus fees.

This event is a collaboration of nine Central Ohio libraries: Bexley Public Library, Columbus Metropolitan Library, Grandview Heights Public Library. London Public Library, Plain City Public Library, Southwest Public Libraries, Upper Arlington Public Library, Westerville Public Library, and Worthington Libraries.

Dive Into Oceans of Possibilities

Visit any Upper Arlington Public Library location this June or July to participate in Summer Reading Club 2022: Oceans of Possibilities.

Here's how it works. For each day you read, color in a sea creature on your reading log. After you've colored seven sea creatures, bring your sheet back to the library for a prize. Your first completed sheet will earn you a coupon packet and an entry in our grand prize drawings. With your second sheet, you'll earn a book and a drawing entry. With your third sheet, you'll get a drawing entry and a sticker.

Keep reading all summer long to earn additional entries for our grand prizes, which include Kings Island tickets, a Baby Shark basket, LEGO sets, gift cards, and more.

Remember, all reading counts! Attending storytimes, reading aloud together, listening to audiobooks – all types of reading count for everyone from babies to adults

A big thank you goes to the Friends of the Upper Arlington Public Library, who make the Summer Reading Club possible every year.

Thank you to our other 2022 sponsors, who donated coupons or prizes to this year's program: Arby's, Brush Crazy, Buckeye Lady, City of Upper Arlington, Clay Café, Cover to Cover Books for Young Readers, Cub Shrub, Jeni's Splendid Ice Creams, Kings Island, Original Goodie Shop, Original Pancake House, Piada Italian Street Food, McDonalds, Star Lanes Polaris, and Thurber House.

Explore topics including photography, self-portraiture, surrealism and abstraction.

History of Self-Portaiture in the Age of the Selfie

Tues., June 14 at 1 p.m.

Friends Theater; 60 min. Registration now open

We will investigate various forms of self-portraiture, beginning with the Renaissance when self-identity was reaching prominence and mirrors were becoming more widely available. Our presenter is Joanne Kesten, an art historian, researcher, educator and fine art appraiser. She currently teaches History of Art & Visual Culture at Columbus College of Art & Design.

The Invention of Photography

Fri., June 24 at 1 p.m.

Friends Theater; 60 min. Registration now open defies belief. After many decades of chemists and hobby scientists attempting to "fix" an image onto a surface and make it permanent, several practitioners managed to solve the problem — all in one single year! Presented by Claire Wiedman, who has been an adjunct at Columbus College of Art & Design since 2015. She specializes in history of photography, photographic theory, darkroom, and digital imaging.

An Introduction to Abstraction

Tues., July 12 at 1 p.m.

Friends Theater; 60 min. Registration now open

Mondrian, Rothko, Reinhardt, Kandinsky are just a few artists who created iconic works of abstract art. This talk by Joanne Kesten will introduce key tenets of abstraction through a brief history of the seminal movements of abstract art including Post-Impressionism, Fauvism, Cubism, Dada, De Stijl, Futurism, German Expressionism, Bauhaus, Abstract Expressionism and Minimalism.

Photography and Surrealism

Fri., July 22 at 1 p.m.

Friends Theater; 60 min. Registration now open

Claire Wiedman returns to present the work of several Surrealist photographers. See how they used photography as a medium to express what cannot be seen by the lens alone. Although photography has long been considered a medium of truth, the art movement of Surrealism recognized photography's potential to distort, interpret, and transmute the world in a way that is far from straightforward.
